HUERTA SAID TO BE READY TO GIVE UP THE DICTATORSHIP

Authorizes Envoys to Submit His Resignation to Mediators.

WOULD STEP DOWN AND OUT

No Successor Mentioned in Dispatches Received from
Mexican Capital

WASHINGTON, May 18.—General Huerta has authorized the Mexican mediation delegates to submit his resignation in case such a course is found necessary to a settlement in the peace negotiations.

This was stated positively in dispatches to-day from a thoroughly competent diplomatic source in Mexico City, to one of the foreign representatives here and confirms intimations given by friends of the delegates here yesterday.

According to this information from Mexico City, Gen. Huerta at first authorized the delegates to discuss only the question of the Tampico conflict leading to the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

Later the Mexican dictator, it is explained, came to recognize the necessity of a broader settlement and then conveyed to the delegates assurances that he was prepared to step down, should this course be found necessary by them.

The problem causing chief concern to diplomats in Mexico City now is that of the form of administration to be established during the interregnum before a constitutionally elected President could assume office.

No intimations concerning the name of a possible successor to Huerta were contained in the dispatch, this subject being one in which it would be necessary to consult the opinion of constitutionalists and other leaders in Mexico.

MRS. THOS. WILLIAMS DIES SUDDENLY OF HEART ATTACK

Mrs. Thomas Williams, aged about seventy-five years, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock in front of her home on Marshall street, from an attack of heart trouble.

Mrs. Williams had been complaining for several days and last Thursday suffered a slight attack, but recovered sufficiently to be about, and to visit the neighbors.

As was her custom she went to the home of Mr. Martin Connors, a short distance away, where she called on Mrs. Connors, who has been quite ill. She was returning to her home when she suffered the fatal attack.

Several persons in the vicinity of her home saw her fall in front of her gate, and the first to reach her side was her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Culbertson, who with the assistance of others removed her to the house. Before medical assistance could be summoned she had expired.

Mrs. Williams was the widow of the late Thos. Williams, of Paris, who for years was a prominent carpenter. She is survived by two sons, Joseph Williams, of Millersburg, and William Williams, of Cincinnati, and one daughter, Mrs. Culbertson, of Paris.

The funeral arrangements have not been made.

BECKHAM LEADS IN BOYLE COUNTY.

The Danville Advocate, a distinctly anti-Beckham paper, under the caption, "Beckham in Lead," says: "An Advocate representative, accompanied by Mr. B. C. Berry, took a straw ballot in the Senatorial race on both sides of Main street between Second and Fourth streets. Eighty-five votes were cast. Of the number 52 were for Beckham, 27 were for Stanley and 6 were for McCreary. The voting was largely confined to country people. Some time ago a straw ballot was taken among the business men and Stanley showed a considerable lead.

"There were several surprises in the vote-taking Saturday. One was the very small vote received by Governor McCreary, and another was the large number of voters who declared they had not yet fully made up their minds in the Senatorial race.

"Practically a third of those who were asked to vote declared they had not yet made up their minds. Another surprise was the fact that one or two who had voted for Stanley on the previous ballot voted for Beckham on Saturday. The present indications are that Stanley will get better than an even break in the city of Danville, while Beckham will get a large majority in the county, judging by present sentiment.

"The Stanley followers have made no campaign so far, while the Beckham forces have been working aggressively for some weeks.

"The McCreary forces have not yet taken any steps, but the McCreary leaders say there will be something doing when they get busy. That there is hot rivalry between Beckham and Stanley forces was evidenced by the declaration of a few Democrats that if Beckham got the nomination they would not support him, and by a few that if Stanley got the nomination they would not support him.

"At the present time Beckham appears to be in the lead, with Stanley second and McCreary a poor third."

MOTHER OF PARIS MAN DIES SUDDENLY IN COLUMBUS.

Mr. Percy Reed, of this city, received a message yesterday morning which announced the death of his mother, Mrs. Sarah F. Collier, which occurred Sunday night in Columbus, O., where she has been under treatment for the past several weeks. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy. She was about 63 years of age.

Mr. Reed received a long distance message Sunday night which apprised him of the serious condition of his mother, and the later message conveyed the news of her death. He is her only surviving son. Her husband died several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed left yesterday afternoon for Columbus, where they will take charge of the remains and remove them to Jackson, Ohio, where they will be interred in the family burying ground Wednesday afternoon.

CHILDREN'S DAY OBSERVED AT METHODIST CHURCH

The annual Children's Day of the Methodist church was observed Sunday morning, taking the place of the regular church service, and the exercises were of a beautiful and interesting character. The large auditorium was filled with friends of the school, and presented a beautiful picture, with the bright faces of the children, the decorations of syringa and snowball blossoms on a background of green, and canary birds singing merrily in their gilded cages. The exercises opened with the processional, the children marching through the aisles to their respective places singing a glad song to the piano accompaniment played by Miss Mattie Lilleston. The opening prayer was made by the beloved pastor of the church, the Rev. J. S. Sims, who is a friend of all the children. Words of welcome were spoken by Imogene Alexander, of the primary class, followed by a recitation by Leonard Frank. The song, "Open the Doors for the Children," was sweetly sung by the school, and a recitation by Frances Taylor, Edna Mae Frank and Alfred Roberts, was well given, as was the next number, a recitation by Ethel May Shankland, Anderson Rose and Kenney Martin, with a solo sweetly story, "Joseph and His Brethren," wonderfully well told by Elizabeth Rule. "A Flower Song," by Ethel May Shankland and Virginia Tingle, with refrain by the children of the primary class, was sweetly sung. Elizabeth Lilleston followed with a recitation well spoken, and "Summer Flowers," by the pupils of the first and second junior classes, was one of the prettiest numbers on the program. Rev. Mr. Sims gave a short talk commending the exercises and making an appeal for an offering, which was taken by six manly boys. The exercises concluded with a hymn "True-Hearted," by the congregation, and the benediction by Mr. Bradley. One of the most beautiful and touching features of the exercises was the welcome to the babies of the Cradle Roll, a number of little ones being brought to the altar and the welcome was voiced by five little girls, Elizabeth Wheeler, Katherine Wills, Marian Galloway and Dorothy Tingle. At the conclusion of the program little Henry Clay Mayhall was baptized by the pastor. Mr. Henry A. Power, the superintendent of the school, presided, and to him and his capable assistants is due much of the credit for the growth and excellence of the school, which is one of the largest in the city.

CHARLES E. BUTLER, SR., STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

Mr. Charles E. Butler, Sr., proprietor of the drug stores of Charles E. Butler & Co., in this city and Carlisle, is confined to his home on West Second street, suffering from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, which he sustained Sunday evening while enroute home from his store.

Mr. Butler was stricken at the Houston Creek Bridge on Second street and was unable to continue to his home without assistance. When he was taken to his home medical attention was immediately summoned, but the extent of the stroke was not determined until yesterday. His speech was affected and one side suffered to come extent by the stroke.

In falling to the pavement Mr. Butler also suffered a badly sprained ankle. His condition at this time is not regarded as being of a serious nature, but is the source of much apprehension to his relatives and many friends. Charles E. Butler, Jr., who conducts the drug store of the company in Carlisle, was summoned to this city yesterday to take charge of the business here during the illness of his father.
